Entrepreneurism runs deep within Daniel Alain Hafid, whose father, René, was the renowned Parisian hair stylist and creator of René of Paris Wigs – the epitome of fashionable, synthetic wigs in the 80's and 90's. Working alongside his father for 30 years, Daniel learned the detailed craftsmanship of making stylish, high quality wigs. He also gained empathy towards women's emotional connection to their hair and the undeniable truth – whether it's their natural hair, extensions or wigs – women desire extraordinary hair.

A visionary, not content with the look and feel of synthetic hair, Daniel set out to create his own legacy, pouring his heart and soul into fashioning the world's most beautifully crafted, European human hair wigs. FOLLEA Luxury Wigs & Hair Enhancements was born.

The success of FOLLEA and impact his wigs had on women with alopecia or those affected by hair loss from chemotherapy propelled Daniel's sense of purpose in a new direction - helping women throughout all stages of hair loss.

Today, Daniel is at the helm of Daniel Alain, Inc., championing women's hair loss solutions through assiduous research and development projects. Daniel's passion for beautiful hair and inherent understanding of how hair makes women feel continues to push innovation, artistry, craftsmanship and unmatched quality throughout his portfolio of brands.
